Troy Strother, Executive Director of Parents Anonymous® of South Carolina to give keynote speech at the Citizens Review Panel National Conference to be held in Charleston, SC May 17- 20 at the Charleston Marriott on Lockwood. The theme of the conference is A Force For Change. Mr. Strother will speak about Parents Anonymous® as a force for change to prevent child abuse and neglect.

Parents Anonymous® of South Carolina is also hosting a welcome reception to kick off the National Citizens Review Panel Conference on Tuesday, May 17th at 7 pm. Attendees from across the country will be in Charleston for this week long conference.

Citizens Review Panels review policies, procedures, and practices of the CPS system and make recommendations annually to their state Department of Social Services. These recommendations help improve the CPS system and make a difference in the lives of children who are abused or neglected. Citizen Review Panels offer volunteers an effective way to share in the community's responsibility to protect some of our most vulnerable citizens—our children.

For more than 30 years, Parents Anonymous® of South Carolina, Inc. has served thousands of South Carolina's families, providing support services with proven, research and evidenced based programs that produce positive results.
